A new Paradigm of Leadership – Awaken Your Inner Mandela

Many admire Nelson Mandela. We marvel at his courage, his ability to forgive, to see beyond discrimination and prejudice and to embrace diversity. We are uplifted by his service of humanity for a greater good. We all have an inner Mandela, join us as we learn from Anne Pratt on how to awaken yours. Learn about a new leadership framework and the 7 quotients of intelligence that Mandela developed in his life, and what shaped him.

Anne Pratt was selected for the 2017 Harvard Advanced Leadership Initiative (ALI) as one of Harvard's top 45 business leaders globally. Prior to ALI, Ms. Pratt led one of South Africa's leading executive search firms, Memela Pratt & Associates. Ms. Pratt is the recipient of multiple awards for business leadership, and early in her career worked for Unilever, McCann Advertising, and Altron, a JSE listed Group.
