Esther Letlape

Human Resources Director, Sappi

Esther Letlape is a dynamic, hardworking and people-centric woman who holds the position of Human Resources Director at Sappi. Previously she held senior and executive roles within the transport (Transnet), construction (Murray & Roberts), mining (JCI) and energy (Sasol Oil) sectors.

Esther is passionate about women and the development of young professionals. Her commitment to change and transformation has been positively recognised and earned her the MD's award for Women Development while at Transnet. Included among her contributions to women empowerment was the role she occupied as Chairperson of the Johannesburg branch for the Business Women's Association. While at Sasol, and in her capacity as the South African Petroleum Industry Association's Human Resources and Transformation Chairperson, Esther was instrumental in creating awareness of challenges faced by businesswomen in the petroleum industry, particularly black women. This initiative, established during women's month, was aimed at sharing business opportunities in petroleum available to women.

Esther is occasionally invited to address young talent on work-related matters, personal growth and motivation. She is also a mentor and coach to young professionals, a role she thoroughly enjoys.
